ST. LOUIS TO HAVE RACING.

FAIR GROUNDS TRACK AGAIN TO RESOUND WITH PATTER OF FLYING FEET.

Outline of a Meeting Devised by Men of High Standing Bent on Restoring Moderate Racing to the Mound City.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 17.—Confirmation of the report that a race meeting of ten or more days' duration will be attempted in St. Louis this fall was had here today. Although the project is still in outline merely, it is practically certain that the meeting will be held. Prominent business people in the Mound City are interested in the project and the St. Louis Fair Grounds are said to have been leased. Joseph A. Murphy will be the presiding judge. Barney Schreiber is one of the prime movers in the venture and among others interested are G. Lacy Crawford and Ralph Orthwein. The proposed meeting is intended for September or October.

The foregoing from Daily Racing Form's correspondent is correct in its main statement. A meeting at the St. Louis Fair Grounds, with men of standing in control, will be a feature next fall unless some unforescen obstacles intervent. It is believed that a plan of racing has been devised that, in view of the auspices under which it will be conducted, even Governor Folk will not object to. If all goes well details will be forthcoming at the proper time.

KEENE'S GOOD DAY AT EMPIRE CITY.

Melisande Wins the Demoiselle Stakes and Footpad Captures a Purse Race.

New York, August 17.—James R. Keene shipped Medisande and Footpad from Saratoga to Yonkers overnight for the purpose of winning the Demoiselle Stakes and a maiden two-year-old purse race decided there today. Each performed the task assigned with constance case. The Castleton-bred eracks were quotied at oddson, and both made good in conformity with the betting.

The card was very good, containing, besides the two races for two-year-olds, a handleap at one mile and three selling races at six furlongs, one mile and mile and a sixteenth. The first-named race engaged good handleap horses besides one three-year-old of stake prefensions in Falcada. On the strength of, his sensational effort in the Yonkers Handleap on Saturday. Tony Bonero was made equal favorite, at 7 to 5, with his younger opponent. The start played an important part in deciding the race. From a dubious beginning Falcada quickly established a contending position under Dugan's alert and skillful horsemanship, and it enabled the top-weighted Wilson colt to just get home in front of his inadequately ridden and unlucky rival, which is inadequately ridden and unlucky rival, which are a sensational race after having been virtually left at the post.

James B. Brady in the sprint and Rockstone in the closing race were the unsuccessful mediums of two-misguided plunges. Both were backed down to unaturally short odds and the money forthcoming created a veritable panic among the layers, the majority of whom refused absolutely to accept a bet at any price about either one of them for nearly five minutes preceding post time.

Woodcraft and Golden Shore, at 5 to 1 and 3 to 1, respectively, upset the good things quite handily and everybody wondered. From a form standpoint, the closing market quotations about the winners and the runners-up in these two races should have been reversed.

Gowan in the fifth race was the one good thing of the afternoon that went through without a hitch.

Gowan in the fifth race was the one good thing of the afternoon that went through without a hitch. James Caffrey's filly is said to have worked a mile in 1:40 flat for today's race and won her race in a was that confirmed that rumor. The Empire City Association's second day of racing was well up to the metropolitan standard in the natter of horses and extent of patronage, despite threatening weather conditions and the increased and unnecessarily oppressive police restrictions in force matter of horses and extent of patronage, despite threatening weather conditions and the increased and nunecessarily oppressive police restrictions in force during the afternoon to prevent violations of the anti-betting law. Many more uniformed police were in evidence than on the opening day. There was a resumption in a mild way of the police tactics that disgraced the work immediately following the enactment of the Hart-Agnew laws at Gravesend in June. Intending bettors in quest of information as to odds were told to move on by police officers whenever any of the latter overheard any queries as to what was the price on so and so. Otherwise race-goers were not molested.

One man, Joseph H. Thonette, suspected of registering a wager, was, however, arrested. The two men arrested on Saturday just before the sixth race were discharged Sunday after a trial before a Yonkers police magistrate. Chief of Police Wolf announced during the morning that he would enforce the anti-betting law in accordance with Justice Gaynor's recent decision and interpretation of it. No single instance of any member of the Metropolitan Turf Association being molested cropped up today. Today's new repressive measure seemed to be directed exclusively to the layers formerly known as the outlanders, which included all those who operated in the field inclosure. Nolan, a newcomer in the bookmaking line, was actually prevented from doing any business. Thonette, the only one arrested looday, is an employe of Joe Blumer, the big field bookmaker.

today, is an employe of Joe Blumer, the big field bookmaker.

Jockey Sammy Sweet, with a fracture of the skull, is doing as well as can be expected at the St. Joseph hospital. He will recover, according to the doctors, but will hardly be able to do any more riding this season. Sumter, the other fockey injured in the fifth race last Saturday, escaped with a had shaking up and may be seen in the saddle before the close of the present meeting.

Caterer McGrath says he did his biggest and most profitable day's business on Saturday since the antiracing crusade began on June 12 last.

W. J. McCloskev has just arrived from California. He sails for France on the La Touraine next Thursday, where he will resume his former vocation of sheeing race horses. McCloskey did all the shocing for Eugene Leigh's stable previous to 1907.

Dr. Gardner fell lame so badly in the fifth race that it is thought the former great race horse, sold by Barney Schreiber to T. D. Suilivan as a three-year-old for $15,000, will have to be retired for Cotytto, in finishing a close-up second to the fleet good.

Cotytto, in finishing a close-up second to the flect Melisande, displayed a glimpse of her real form. The Solitaire filly was the highest-tried yearling that A. B. Spreckels' Napa Stud farm has ever the solitaire out.

that A. B. Spreckels' Napa Stud farm has ever turned out.

Mr. James Butler declared himself perfectly satisfied with conditions as they have been these two days past. Everything was going on smoothly and if the average of attendance keeps up for the remaining ten days of the meeting, there will be no deficit to make up.

Clarence H. Mackay has donated $500 to the fund which is being raised for the purpose of defraying the expense incidental to the big reception to be given to the returning Olympic victors.

Perseus looms up as a dangerous Futurity candidate. He gets into the race with all the allowances. The Sanford stable will be missed at Yonkers, the oversight to nominate in the stakes there was unintentional. Mr. Sanford thought there would be a full meeting at Saratoga, so overlooked the Yonkers program, believing it would clash with Saratoga, his own camping grounds.

MORE RAIN SLOWS FORT ERIE TRACK.

Boadicea and Lady Baldur Win for Bissell-St. Volma Scores in the Steeplechase.

Buffalo, N. Y., August 17.—Additional heavy rains put the track in a wretched condition and upset form calculations. A good card had been arranged in anticipation of a fast track, but after the rain owners made haste to withdraw their charges. As a consequence the better class horses remained in their stables.

Bullalo, N. 1., August 17.—Additional nearly rains put the track in a wretriened condition and upset form calculations. A good card had been arranged in anticipation of a fast track, but after the rain owners made haste to withdraw their charges. As a consequence the better class shores remained in their stables.

The iffth race, in which only four were named to start, had to be declared off, leaving only six races to be declaied.

The steeplechase was farcical, made so by the had condition of the course, which in spots resembled a miniature lake. The horses had difficulty in going through the deep pools, and two of the starters were so completely exhausted that they came to crief at the tenth jump. Impertinence stumbled colorer in the race and unscated her rider. So the course of the race and unscated her rider. So the course in New Helens sheen a starter since his defeats an New Helens sheen a starter since his defeats in New Helens sheen a starter since his defeats in New Helens sheen a starter since his defining good form today, and it was first disciplination of the course how far he would win by. Before the race stories were industriously circulated to the effect that he was not fit and this caused his price to soar skyward at a raid rate and send the bulk of the support to Creolin. The judges were dissatisfied with the betting and cautioned jockey Archibald, on St. Volma, to do his best. The horse, however, from the start, was never seriously threatened. Creolin, after laboring perceptibly, managed to retain his footing, and when the mishaps to Impertinence, Picktime and Inkap II. occurred, he easy disposed of Little Wally, the only other starter, for second place.

G. W. J. Bissell managed to annex a couple of purses during the afternoon, the first he has won at the meeting. His first victory came in the opening race, when Boadicea scored luckly from Woodlands Rose. Kennedy, on the latter, made the mistake of steering wide on the stretch ture, expecting to find a path. The rain and harrows had defaced t

BELMONT AND WHITNEY FOR ENGLAND.

Have Leased Balaton Lodge Together-Belmont Jars with Jockey Club Associates.

London, August 17.—It is now stated that Balaton Lodge, Newmarket, has not been leased to Messrs. Keene and Belmont, but to Mr. Belmont and Harry Payne Whitney. The buildings were first erected by Lord Zetland, who sold them to his trainer, Joe Enoch. Then the late Sir J. B. Maple purchased them. He sold them to his trainer, William Waugh. Messrs, Clarke and Sir J. B. Robinson leased them, and now they are let to Messrs. Belmont and Whitney. The grounds adjoin those of Lord Penrhyn.

those of Lord Fenrhyn.

In connection with Mr. Belmont's long stay in England in these troublous times for the turf, his plans for increasing his racing stable there and the leasing of an establishment at Newmarket, it may be said upon good authority that after the passage of the Hart-Agnew bills, Mr. Belmont and his associates in the Jockey Club had serious differences over what had happened at Albany and that those differences had not been adjusted when the chairman of the Jockey Club went to England. They have not been adjusted since. It is said that Mr. Belmont is never again expected to take a leading part in the connells of the Jockey Club. Outside his breeding ventures it is declared Mr. Belmont holds but a moderate interest in the metropolitan race tracks, though he is a heavy bond-holder in the properties. The interest of W. H. Vanderbilt far exceeds those of Mr. Belmont in the New York race tracks.

The news of the English lease is therefore no surprise to eastern racing men, who know the situation. The lease also means that the Belmont horses will go out of the lands of James Watson at Palace House, Newmarket. Watson has trained Mr. Belmont's horses in the past in connection with those of Mr. Leopold de Rothschild, Baron E. de Rothschild, Mr. Arthur Wagg and Mr. John T. Wood.

JACK WITT GETS HIS OWNER INTO TROUBLE.

JACK WITT GETS HIS OWNER INTO TROUBLE.

Seattle, Wash., August 17.—The horse Jack Witt so reversed form in winning the fourth race at The Meadows today that the stewards summarily suspended C. B. Daniels, his owner and trainer, and all the horses in his stable. Jack Witt had run poorly it his previous starts here. On the strength of fast work he was recently a 1 to 2 favorite in inferior company on which occasion he finished third. Co-incident with extensive ring support at remunerative odds, he spreadeagled his opponents in fast time today, incidentally running seven furlongs in 1:252 under restraint. Daniels recently shipped his stable here from Denver.

The choices of the public failed to fare as well as during the preceding few days, all six favorites being beaten. Three of them—Prestige, Pal and Anna May—finished second with no mishaps. El Pavo, favorite of the juvenile race, was unfortunate at the barrier and finished third. The remaining two choices—Herman Doyle and May L. N.—ran very poorly. Fast work was responsible for the plunge that made Doyle favorite.

The judges have instituted an investigation into May L. N.'s case. Lady Quality, at 59, and Combury, at 25, the latter a recent arrival from Butte, were pronounced outsiders.

MADDEN'S ENGLISH OAKS CANDIDATE.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 17.—According to Madden stable plans, when its owner ships Sir Martin and Fayette to England, Lady Bedford, which won the opening event Saturday, would go with them. She is entered in the Oaks and he means to make a bid for both the English classics. The filly is a grand looker, by Ogden out of Matanza. She was highly thought of this spring, but contracted a skin disease. Madden has lost Court Lady, his more than useful Rensselaer—Stately filly, which was claimed out of Friday's race, in which she ran second, by the Beverwyck Stable for $1,280.

WHITNEY HORSES TO STAY AT SARATOGA. TRY OUT NEW KENTUCKY POOLROOM LAW.

Saratoga, N. Y., August 17.—Trainer A. J. Joyner, of the Whitney stable, said Saturday that he would not ship the Whitney and Belmont horses back to Sheepshead Bay until a couple of days before, the beginning of the Coney Island Jockey Club's fall meeting. There are millions of mosquitoes and as many flies at the Bay. Saratoga has flies a-plenty, but there are no mosquitoes, and Joyner believes that his horses will do best here. The Whitney and Belmont campaigners are entitled to a rest. They have raced since the earliest weeks of the current season. Joyner should not experience great difficulty in getting his horses ready here for the Sheepshead Bay dates. After Sunday the main track is to be at the service of trainers throughout the day, week in and week out. Joyner has two Futurity candidates of the Whitney stable in his Hillside and Bobbin and one of the Belmont establishment. Practical, to get ready for the great race to be run at the Bay on the opening day of the Sheepshead Bay fall meeting. Mr. Joyner's own horses are at Sheepshead Bay under the charge of John Schlosser. Schlosser is busy just now getting Hessian, the star of the string, ready for engagements at Yonkers, Hessian is in the $15,000 Empire City Handicap and the Whirl Stakes, and he will probably start in both.

Two men, John Quinn and John Duey, were arrested at Cincinnati Saturday on a charge of aiding and abetting in the operation of a poolroom on the Alexandria Pike. Duey is the operator at the rooms and Quinn is employed there. These are the first warrants issued under the new anti-poolroom law, drawn up and introduced by Senator Wilhelmi of Campbell County, and passed by the last legislature.

JOCKEY MOUNTAIN NOW RIDES AUTOMOBILES

Jockey George Mountain and his brother. William. have opened a garage at Los Angeles. Both have become experts and operate a livery in connection with the garage. Jockey Mountain declares he is not out of racing by any means. If he can get his license again he intends to go to France, where the weights will suit him best.

LEXINGTON DATES TO BE NAMED TODAY.

Lexington, Ky., August 17.—The directors of the Kentucky Association will meet tomorrow to fix dates for fall racing. It is now expected that they will decide to open the meeting September 19 and continue seven, ten or twelve days. There is a diversity of opinion as to the duration of the meeting.

PASSING OF A GREAT RACER AND SIRE.

An Illinois-bred thoroughbred of great fame is reported to have died recently. This is the brown horse Aloha, a grand racer in his day and sire of the American Derby winner, Robert Waddell, Aloha was bred by J. P. Smallwood near Carlinville, Ill. Smallwood was the owner of the imported horse, St. Mingo, which was a son of St. Albans, brought to this country by the American Horse Exchange in 1881. From his union with the Virgil mare, Olihe, also owned by Sinallwood, Aloha was foaled in 1885. Subsequently Ollie became the property of W. H. Cheppu of the Meadowthorpe Stud, near comparable with Aloha. Mr. Smallwood raced Aloha so successfully over Chicago and St. Louis tracks that John J. McCafferty bought him for $20,001 in 1892 and Smallwood retired to his farm with a competence. McCafferty achieved many notable triumplas with Aloha over the New York tracks as well as those of the west. After his retirement from the track Aloha became the property of "Pa" Bradley and at his stud farm at Wilcox Landing on the James River, Virginia, sired many serviceable race horses, but nothing else as good as Robert Waddell, which, in his prime, was really 2 temarkable little race horses, a remarkable little race horse.

J. B. HAGGIN TELLS OF SELLING PLANS.

Newport, R, I., August 17.—James B. Haggin, who is here at his summer home, Arleigh, 'stated today that he considered that the enforcing of the racing law by Governor Hughes had brought about the slump in the thoroughbred market not only in New York, but elsewhere in America. In fact, there is no longer a market for thoroughbred horses and for this reason he is to try elsewhere. Mr. Haggin said:
"I am to ship between forty and fifty horses to Buenos Avres and they will leave on August 20. There will be no young horses among those that I will send away. They will be mostly breeding mares and stallions and of course cannot be raced," Mr. Haggin stated that there was a good market in South America, and that was the reason he was making the shipment.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Redfern, who was recently granted a li-cense by the Jockey Club, is going to Europe to ride as a free lance.

Judge Joseph A. Murphy is gathering animals for thoroughbred sale which he will hold at Dallas ex., beginning October 24.

At the meeting of the directors of the Saratoga Association, C. L. Warring, of Amsterdam, was elected to succeed the late John G. Hecksher. Mr. Warring is related to the Messrs, Sanford.

Among the officials at the coming meeting at Norfolk, Va., is to be Washington Norvel, so long and favorably known as entry clerk at Hawthorne. "Wash" is to be patrol judge and entry clerk.

"Wash" is to be patrol judge and entry clerk.

Andrew Miller figures that the Saratoga Association will lose this season all of $30,000. But those figures will cover state and county taxes, cost of maintenance, office rent and hire of help in New York as well as purses.

There is a movement on foot to establish a high-class jockey club at Newport, R. I. The plan is said to have been carefully considered and there is little doubt that steps will be taken toward acquiring the property, which has already been looked over.

When a recent admirer told John Madden that it was wonderful that year after year he could raise and train his own horses and hold his own, the astute Madden replied grimly: "Holding one's own is not enough. In this business a man must hold somebody's else."

The so-called Horseman's Matinee Association which was to have tried to operate the Jeffersor Parish merry-go-round near New Orleans, must have choked itself with early effort. At any rate, its race meeting, which was to have begun last Saturday, has not begun yet.

ally alone. Bird of Flight II., away poorly, got into quick forward contention, ran on the extreme outside throughout and was a fast going second. Killcreen, in inside close quarters in the early running, gained ground in the stretch and finished fast. Campeon set the early pace and tired in the closing drive, but is extra good and promising. Nedlim was a prominent contender for five furlongs. Home Run, after forward pursuit for five furlongs, tired. Ark was well up at the end. Never Late, away poorly, closed a gap. Harry Rogers, away slowly, dropped quickly to the rear.

ANSWERS TO QUERIES.

P. E., Chicago. The parlay lost. Ben R., Cincinnati, O. The bet on Washakie was a draw.

Joe A., Chicago. Parlays are decided strictly by the running of the horses named in the bet and since one of the horses named lost, the parlay lost also.

T. R. Q., Chicago. When C. J. Cella was scratched, the parlay became a straight and place single bet on Joe Gaitens and payable as such subject to the limit.

W. E. H., Chicago. It was a loser. The entry should have been backed. Had you observed the en-tries published in Dally Racing Form, you would have been aware of the fact that it was a coupled entry been aware.

S. W., Chicago. The settlement was correct, the place bet being a draw because there was no separate place betting against Sea Cliff. If he had run unplaced, the result would have been the same. That is, your place bet would have been a draw.

THOROUGHBREDS START ON A LONG JOURNEY

Lexington, Ky., August 15.—J. B. Haggin's shipment of thoroughbreds to South America will be made tomorrow. Four carloads, twenty-four to the car, leave at four oclock by express to New York, thence by steamer to Buenos Ayres. There are six stallions, the remainder being mares, The list is not obtainable here. Mr. Haggin will give it out in New York.

Twenty-two of James R. Keene's yearlings will be shipped to New York tomorrow morning. With them go five mares. The destination of the mares is not known to Major Daingerfield. It may be that they are to join the Haggin shipment to South America.
